SMALL BUSINESS PERSON OF THE YEAR

The Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce proudly presents this annual program to honor and celebrate the exceptional businesses and individuals of the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce that have made a difference in our community.

We are now accepting nominations for these awards that will be presented during the

Annual Installation Luncheon on April 12, 2011

Nominations are open to everyone. You may nominate yourself or another who you think is deserving of consideration. Simply complete the appropriate form(s), paying special attention to the following award criteria:

Business of the Year

Awarded to a Walnut Creek Chamber business that maintains a major and stable presence in the community. The recipient exemplifies excellent corporate citizenship by contributing time and effort to the communities in which it operates and embraces a corporate culture that enhances the lives of its employees.

Citizen of the Year

Awarded to the individual who has significantly contributed to the Walnut Creek community through volunteer service, civic and/or Chamber involvement. Displaying leadership and integrity, this individual will have demonstrated a history of commitment to “giving back”.

Educator of the Year

Awarded to the educator or educational leader who has made significant personal and/or professional contributions to the overall well-being of youth by establishing high academic and personal standards for students, developing strategies to help ensure students’ success and promoting a commitment to excellence and community services.

Innovator of the Year

Awarded to a Chamber member - a company or individual, demonstrating a capacity for creativity and innovation in the areas of technology, environmental awareness, energy efficiency and sustainability, or scientific advancement.

Small Business Person of the Year

Criteria for eligibility include the following:

- Must have a minimum of three (3) years in business
- Either live or work in Walnut Creek
- Notable for entrepreneurial spirit and skill, productivity, customer services and contributions to the community
